2024 SPEAKING/GROUP SESSION OPTIONS

#	Title	Theme
1	PUT YOUR OWN MASK ON FIRST	Setting the conditions in which people want to give their best...It's personal! Putting you back in the driver's seat by 'putting your own mask on first'.
2	THRIVE... DON'T JUST SURVIVE!	Don't just survive...choose to thrive! With a simple shift in thinking, we have the individual and collective power to generate more energy and movement in the direction we desire.
3	WHAT'S THE VALUE OF VALUES?	Translate individual values into 3-5 key focus areas which are then converted to their 'pitch' statement
4	YES, I TALK TO MYSELF... AND IT HELPS! 😊	We all have self-talk: Is it helping us or hindering us? Deeper dive into our self-talk and to effectively choose the talk that moves us forward
5	MY PAST IS MY PRESENT	Understanding key elements of our past puts us in the driver's seat for our present. Deeper connection to helping activities, thoughts, and support from the past to bring forward.
6	ME, MYSELF, AND I: IS THAT ENOUGH?	Support systems are especially critical in times of change. Are we leveraging the right support systems for the right problems?
7	WHAT'S MY #HASHTAG?	How do we want to be seen and what do we want said about us - especially in tough times? Intentional focus on brand and not leaving it to chance.
8	WHAT MAKES ME A ROCKSTAR?	Have you ever had one of those moments where another person said to you: 'You are a Rockstar!' and how amazing it made you feel? What if you could create those moments for yourself, getting connected to exactly what makes you a rockstar? You absolutely can!
9	CURIOSITY DIDN'T KILL ANYTHING... OR DID IT?	We all know the power of being curious (rather than judgmental). Can we be too curious? Can it get in the way of decisiveness? Explore the polarity of balancing curiosity and decisiveness, getting the best of both in this VUCA world we live in.
10	EMPATHY CAN DO WHAT???	Did you know that empathy (given and received) does so much for us in a positive way for ongoing mental health and joy? Learn practical ways to create an empathetic mind and overcome burnout and increase joy!
11	LAUGHTER: A BODY BOOST WITH BENEFITS	Laughing gives us the same results as exercise, meditation, and personal connection all combined! Yet we don't do this enough. Let's explore the brain science of humor and how to make it a practical application in the work environment.
12	WHAT ME? BIASED?	Simply put - if we draw breath, we have bias. Let's explore the brain science of bias in order to better understand and accept that it exists. . . and explore practical ways to be intentional about mitigation.
13	MASTERING YOUR INNER IMPOSTER	Hello women. . you are not a fraud! You deserve success without feeling like a fraud. Let's do a deeper dive into the brain science of limiting beliefs and get practical about letting them go!
14	YOU AND YOUR INNER CRITIC	Explore the impact of negative self-talk and get practical with the brain science of choosing a new way to talk to ourselves.
15	ARE WE LISTENING ANYMORE?	I think I've stopped listening, have we forgotten how? What's gotten in the way. Let's squash conflict and confusion and be intentional about opening up again.
16	3 C'S IN CONVERSATION	Transforming communication to conversation for true connection to elevate results, create new solutions, and increase brain capacity through Context, Curiosity and Co-Creation!
